

Masten, HIS 327 The Arts as History
Oral Presentation Evaluations

Assess the effectiveness of the oral presentation

1. Were you persuaded by the presentation?

Was the topic well researched?

Was the argument clear? Write it down.

2. Was the oral argument (speech) organized into points with supporting details?

Could you list the points if asked?

Was any point not backed up with evidence?

3. What question arose in your mind that wasn't answered?

Write it down and ask it.

Assess the speaker's communication skills

4. How was the presentation of the material?

Could you hear and understand the speaker?

Were the images clear? Could you see the supporting details?

5. What aspects of the presentation could have been done better?