New York Forward Loan Fund (NYFLF)

New York Forward Loan Fund (NYFLF) is a new economic recovery loan program aimed at supporting New York State small businesses, nonprofits and small landlords as they reopen after the COVID-19 outbreak and NYS on PAUSE.

It targets the state's small businesses with 20 or fewer employees (90% of all businesses), nonprofits, and small landlords that have seen loss of rental income. The working capital loans of up to $100,000 are timed to support businesses and organizations as they proceed to reopen and have upfront expenses to comply with guidelines (e.g., inventory, marketing, refitting for new social distancing guidelines) under the New York Forward Plan.

These loans are available to small businesses, nonprofits, and small landlords that did not receive a loan from either the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) or SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDL). The loans are not forgivable in part or whole. The loans will need to be paid back over 5-year term with interest.

SPECIAL NOTES & RESOURCES

New York Forward Loan Fund

The New York Forward Loan Fund – Special Notes

- Participating lenders are responsible for making their own credit decisions.
- Due to the expected high demand, the number of New York Forward loans will be limited.
- Due to a limited amount of funding and the high volume of requests expected, your business type, geography and industry may factor into your ability to receive a loan.
- Applications will be reviewed on rolling basis as regions and industries are phased to reopen.
- Please note that submitting a pre-application is not indication of eligibility or that funding will be approved.
- We recommend applying as soon as possible. In the event the website is overwhelmed, we recommend checking back often to submit your pre-application.
- A borrower should only submit one application, loan terms do not change from lender to lender and multiple requests could slow your process.
