

Gaëlle Aminata Colin
Ph.D Student
State University of New York, Stony Brook
Curriculum Vitae 2021

EDUCATION

Currently	Ph.D Sociology State University of New York, Stony Brook
2019-2020	M.A Gender and Sexuality Studies (Cum Laude, Sociology), EHESS, Paris, France
2018-2019	Maitrise in Sociology and Anthropology (Cum Laude, politics, culture and migration)
2015-2018	Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Arts and Sciences (Cum Laude, Humanities), University College Maastricht, Netherlands

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

Critical Race Theory, African Diaspora in Europe, Social Movements, Memory Studies, Qualitative Methods, Social Network

ACADEMIC WORK HISTORY

Currently	Teaching Assistant, State University of New York, Stony brook
2020-2021	Junior Teaching Fellow University College Maastricht

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

2020	Lecture before Screening La Haine for Studium Generale, Maastricht, Netherlands
2020	Responsible for video recording and video editing at the Black Feminisms in a French(post)imperial context, Campus Condorcet, France
2019	Moderator during Afrohair Panel Discussion, Maastricht University, Netherlands

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Course taught as a Junior Teaching fellow at UCM

- Research Methods
- Presentation Skills
- Academic Skills
- Crucial Differences in the 21st Century
- Identities
- Project: The Journal

Lecture given as a Junior Teaching Fellow at UCM

- Qualitative Interviewing (part of the course Ethnography and Qualitative Interviewing)
- The Construction of Blackness in Europe (part of the course Identities)

OTHER RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2019 English Substitute Teacher for Education Nationale, Creteil, France
- 2018 Civil Service working with young student prepare for the transition for high school to higher education, Paris, France
- 2016-2018 Student assistant for course Evaluation, University College Maastricht